

RTA Board of Directors

Rev. Tyrone L. Crider, Sr.

Director
Regional Transportation Authority

Rev. Tyrone Crider was appointed to the Board of directors of the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) in April 2008 representing suburban Cook County. He serves on the Board's Administrative and Mobility Limited committee's.

Prior to his appointment, Rev. Crider served in a number of community driven roles including heading up the National Push for Excellence Program, coordinating the youth voter registration campaign to elect Chicago's First Black Mayor, Harold Washington and led the national voter registration campaign for the historic Jesse Jackson for President campaign in 1984.

Rev. Crider also served as the Director of Admissions and Associate Dean of Students of Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio and National Executive Director of Operation PUSH. Today, Rev. Crider serves as the senior pastor of Mount Calvary Baptist Church of Chicago.

Rev. Crider is a graduate of Morehouse College and resides in Country Club Hills with his wife Regina Leslie.

Regional Transportation
Authority